The Free Network Foundation   45-2505667

The only officer of the Free Network Foundation is Isaac Wilder. He studied Comptuer Science and Philosophy at Grinnell College until dropping out to form this organization. He works 80-100 hours a week for the FNF and is uncompensated. He is responsible for managing software and media projects, outreach to the technology community, and maintaining the FNF website.